FUSION SPELLBINDERS TALK TO LOCAL VOTERS

Several Hundred Listen

and Others

TALK ON EXTRAVAGANCE

Declare Republican Party is Spending Too Much Money for Various Matters

Fusion spellbinders held forth in Charleroi Saturday at a rally destined, according to their assertions, to increase the chances of the county candidates on the Democratic-Keystone ticket four-fold or more. Robert K. Aiken, Esq., of New Castle, who came near showing up E. F. Achen in a fight for Congress about five years ago, was the chief orator. State Senator J. Carter Judson and Rufus S. Marriner, Esq., of Washington were his chief assistants. Dr. J. K. Smith of Charleroi, the chairman of the fusion organization here, was chairman of the meeting.

The meeting was not a "frost." Rufus Marriner said so and a man who has had as much experience in that line as he has had should know. At the beginning there were several hundred gathered around the speaker's stand. This crowd thinned down to possibly a hundred by the time the meeting closed.

State Senator Judson was the first speaker. He went after the present Republican State administration. In no uncertain terms he condemned the Legislature for its wasteful extravagance in the voting of enormous salaries and creating new offices and in various ways draining the treasury for the support of the machine. He asserted that the Legislature was neither honest nor sincere, that it was owned by the machine and worked solely in the interests of the organization. He said he was heartily in favor of Governor Tener's Public Utilities bill, and that he and his Democratic colleagues in the Senate worked hard for the measure but that it was defeated by the Governor's own party and friends. The Washington county ticket he branded as a branch of the organization. He closed with an appeal to the voters to help the movement to tear the State away from the machine.

Attorney Aiken said that five years ago he was a candidate for Congress on a non-partisan platform, and he still stood upon that platform. His mission was to fight the Penrose machine in the State. He arraigned the State Highways project of issuing $50,000,000 in bonds for the construction of roads, and said that to do so the people would have to pay $2,000,000 in interest a year. If people who held property that was subject to State taxation were honest enough to return it, it would not be necessary to issue any bonds at all. He said that on authority of former Auditor General Young the payment of taxes in the State on a billion dollars' worth of stocks and bonds was evaded each year. He roundly scored the State machine and the so-called "Family Ticket" in the county, which he termed a machine affair to help perpetuate political control of the Penrose administration.

Attorney Rufus Marriner gave his entire attention to the county. He approved a good orator but in spots had

Extend Call to Minister

Baptist Congregation Asks
Rev. E. J. Stanley to Become Pastor

At a congregational meeting of the First Baptist church on Sunday morning a unanimous call was extended to Rev. E. J. Stanley, of Newport, Ohio, to become pastor. The call was extended conjunctively with one from the Donora Baptist church, a recently formed organization.

Rev. Stanley, it is understood will accept the two calls. He will be expected to live in Charleroi and divide his time between here and Donora. He will hold morning services here Sunday going to Donora in the afternoon and evening.

Rev. Stanley is a former missionary to Africa. He will probably assume charge of the pastorate here within about a month.

tion Day

CONTROLLER TODD HERE

State Controller Samuel C. Todd is here from Harrisburg to vote at the general election Tuesday. Governor J. K. Tener, who spent last week at the home of his brother in Sewickley is expected to arrive on Tuesday morning to cast his ballot.

Both Gov. Tener and State Controller Todd are taking an active interest in the present campaign just nearing a close and consider the Republican county ticket a good one.

MRS. ELIZABETH KING DIES AT TARENTUM

L. H. Goehring this morning received word of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth King aged 77 mother of Mrs. Goehring at her home in Breckenridge. Mrs. Goehring was called to the bedside of her mother Friday. Death occurred this morning at 7 o'clock. Besides Mrs. Goehring, another daughter, Mrs. Joseph Mills of Breckenridge and three sons, John H. Albert W., and Charles W., survive.

ELKS' HUNT CLOSES; WELTNER'S SIDE WINS

Supper to Follow at Club House Election Night
-Trial to Take Place Before a Jury-Governor Tener to be Present

By a slight margin the side captained by C. W. Weltner won in the Elk's annual hunting contest ever that captained by James W. Walker, according to a decision of the judges this morning. The hunting contest ended Saturday night when all game was turned in. The annual game supper will take place on Tuesday night, when it is expected that Governor John K. Tener, who is a member of the local lodge will be present. At this time there will be a jury trial of the hunters who participated in the hunt, to ascertain whether or not they indulged in anything during the hunt that was not according to the rules. The hunt was undoubtedly the most successful ever conducted by the local Elks, and was warmly contested by both sides. Capt. Weltner's side secured a total of 1,951 points to Capt. Walker's 1,780.

Game of all kinds was turned in but the climax was reached when late Saturday night John Jenkins, "Bill" Phillips and Pierce Ferguson walked in with a bear. True the bear was a cub, but it was none the less a bear, captured according to the story of the trio in Venango county. However this game was turned in under protest, it being claimed that the bear was tame at the time it was captured, regardless of what it was when turned in.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS BEGIN

Rev. A. E. Burrows and Prof.
R. A. Jennings to Have Charge of Services

Lively interest was shown at the opening Sunday evening of a series of evangelistic services to be conducted at the Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. F. A. Richards, the pastor was in charge of the meeting and preached a sermon on the topic: "What Shall I Do With Jesus?"

On Tuesday night Dr. A. E. Burrows, a noted evangelist of Ohio, and Prof. R. A. Jennings of Pittsburg a song leader who was with Gipsy Smith at his meetings in Pittsburg, will come and take charge of the services.

DOWNER DENIES ALLEGATIONS

To the Voters of Washington County: I desire to characterize as false the statement published in the Union Labor Journal last week and circulated throughout the county that I have promised to appoint as my deputy if elected to the office of county treasurer Harry R. Campbell, whom the article denounces as an enemy of organized labor. I want to say as emphatically as it can be stated that I never entered into any such deal. Mr. Campbell never approached me on the subject, and I never by word or deed indicated the proposition to him, or to any one else.

The statement that I entered into such a deal is absolutely and unequivocally false. I never promised to appoint Harry R. Campbell or any other person to the position of deputy if elected county treasurer. The statement is circulated as a campaign canard for the express purpose of injuring me on the eve of election, and is false in every particular. I am ready and willing to subscribe to an affidavit to this effect.

BIG MERGER OF STORES EFFECTED

Five and Ten Cent Establishments Joined With F. W.
Woolworth at Head

A $65,000,000 corporation to merge the greatest string of 5 and 10 cent stores in America is announced by F. W. Woolworth. Six hundred concerns will enter the new corporation, which will be known as F. W. Woolworth Co.

The new corporation will take over the business of F. W. Woolworth of New York; S. H. Knox and Co., of Buffalo, F. M. Kirby & Co., of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., the E. P. Charleston & Co. of Fall River, Mass., C. S. Woolworth of Scranton, Pa., W. H. Moore of Watertown, N. Y., and W. H. Moore & Son of Schenectady, N. Y.

The corporation also will assume a controlling interest in the English business of F. W. Woolworth & Co. limited.

Woolworth, one of the founders of the scheme, was one of the originators of the 5 and 10 cent store business and has piled up millions of dollars on his chain of establishments in which 10 cents will buy anything in the store.

F. W. Woolworth, the man who mastered such a business is less than 50 years of age. He started without wages as a farmer's boy in a dry goods store in Watertown, N. Y., set up his first store in 1879 and has been in business for 30 years. He was born in Jefferson county, New York.

When he worked in a store as a boy he evolved the idea that brought him great wealth. Woolworth fixed a uniform price—five and ten cents. He opened his first store in Utica, but the proposition did not go. He tried again in Lancaster, Pa., and there laid the foundation for his fortune.

Among the stores affected by the gigantic merger is that in Charleroi.

JUVENILE COURT SENDS BOY HOME

Erring Lad is Warned That Repetition of Offense Will Mean Morganza

Herbert Pegg of Charleroi, a son of the superintendent of the Charleroi Cemetery company, was in juvenile court Friday to answer the charge of larceny. With a young man, Robert Trindor, he had taken several packages of merchandise from a buggy belonging to Ernest Nelson, in a hitching yard at Charleroi. The lad is 13 years of age. He claimed that Trindor, who is 19 years of age, compelled him to commit the theft, threatening to "land" on him, as Pegg said. The goods were hidden and afterwards received, Pegg telling where they were. The court, after admonishing the boy, permitted him to return home with his father, but impressed upon him that he would still be under the jurisdiction of the probation officer, and if he did not behave he would be taken into custody and sent to Morganza.

Double Apples and Triple
Apples Grown on Big Tree
in Fayette County

Luther Burbank has been outdone in his efforts as a naturalist by nature and a Fayette county apple tree. Last week Gilbert Uptegraft of Charleroi visited friends in Fayette county and spent some time on the "Lynn" farm about four miles back of Brownsville. Out walking one day he came upon a tree laden with apples. He examined and found the apples were of a brand new variety although really Rambos. Every apple that he could pick was a double apple, with a few exceptions, and these exceptions were triple apples. All the apples had one stem and two or three cores.

WILL SET GRADE ON LINCOLN

Council to Take Up Ordinance For Third and
Final Reading

PROMISE OF STATE AID

Among the business to come up at the regularly monthly meeting of the borough council tonight will probably be that of the grade ordinance for Lincoln avenue, which it is proposed to improve by State aid. Council will meet as usual at 8 o'clock.

The ordinance setting the grade along the entire length of Lincoln avenue from the borough line on the north to Second street has already passed first and second readings and tonight will be taken up for final consideration. It was prepared by Borough Engineer Paul G. Elder. With the passage of the ordinance setting the grade, the borough will be in shape for its part of the work. The State had engineers in here last week surveying Lincoln avenue, which is along State Highway route No. 247.

Improvement of the street will be gotten under way just as soon as possible, but this will hardly be until early next season. Weather conditions have much to do with the construction of highways and there is little hope for fair weather from now on until next spring.

FATHER OF MRS. HEUPEL IS DEAD

Charles Walz, a well known citizen of Wilkensburg, died on Sunday night at 11:55 o'clock. Mr. Walz was the father of Mrs. Herman Heupel of Lincoln avenue, Charleroi. His widow Mrs. Anna Walz also survives.

Big Blanket Ballots Pre- pared for General Election

LAST ROUND OF BATTLE

Candidates Getting in Their Final Licks Today on the
Opposing Tickets

With election only one day off candidates are putting in their final licks. The ballots have all been prepared for the various districts over the county and specimen ballots are in the hands of workers of both parties.

On the ballots prepared for Charleroi there are six tickets, Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, Socialist, Keystone and Independent. The ballot is of the blanket variety and measures 19 by 24 inches. There are 43 candidates on the county ticket and 45 on the borough ticket with the addition of the six precincts, which will average about a half dozen or more each.

Only the Republican and the Democratic-Keystone tickets are complete. The Prohibition and Socialist tickets are not complete for borough offices and the Prohibitionists have not candidates for all county offices. There is only one man on the Independent ticket, that being John Higgins, a candidate for constable.

Voters can vote a straight ticket by marking a cross in the squares opposite the party name in the first column; while if they wish to vote a split ticket, they will have to make at least 31 different marks. Two constitutional amendments are on the ticket one with reference to the amount of the debt of cities, boroughs, townships and school districts and to the courts of Philadelphia and Allegheny county.

DONORA ASKS RECIPROCITY

Dr. A. V. Lewis of Donora, who is the Republican nominee for the office of prothonotary should receive the support of the people of Charleroi from the fact that at all times Donora and her people have always given their support to Charleroi candidates for State and county offices. They have also always responded to any invitation to help Charleroi and the whole Monongahela valley in anything for the business advancement of the community. It is therefore proper that we entertain the policy of helping one another. 85-12

CIVIC DUTY.

With many men of many minds and
important borough officials to elect
tomorrow, it is up to every voter in
the borough to exercise his right of franchise and vote for the candidates
of his choice. When that is done, the result represents the will of the majority, which in general must be regarded as final. While the majority
does not in every case choose wisely,
and the exigencies of the campaign
of times determines results that might turn out differently under different conditions, yet this is as near
an expression of the popular will as
can well be devised under a representative form of government.

One of the reasons why a majority
does not always choose wisely is because too many voters put personal
interests and preferences ahead of
civic duty. A man who is a good fellow does not always make a good official, and a man with the proper administrative requirements may not be personally popular with a sufficient number of voters to be elected.
Others are supported or opposed of-
times on account of personal differences, or because they belong to this
or that church or fraternity, regardless of other qualifications. This is a matter that cannot well be avoided so long as human prejudices and passions are first considered, and the final result should be cheerfully ac-
quiesced in by all who take the same
chance on the election. What is desired above all is that Charleroi's
municipal government shall continue

to advance in civic affairs instead of being checked or falling backward.

With a good array of candidates on
all local tickets and the well known
uplift sentiment of a majority of the voters of the town, there is little to fear, no matter what the result may be.
The chief thing for each voter to do
is to turn out and cast his ballot at
the election.

A CONSTRUCTIVE POLICY.

What is needed now in both State
and National administration is a constructive policy which will be for the benefit of all the people. This is clearly being recognized on all
hands, and the political party that makes this a straightout issue and can detract popular sentiment from the destructive policies which all political parties have been making more or less of an issue, in response to corporate and industrial abuses, will be an ultimate winner.

It is perfectly right and proper to correct corporate abuses, and regulate
their future policies in the interest
of the public welfare, but the down-
right hostility that has been engen-
dered in the effort to work in political capital along with this restriction and regulation is destructive to national prosperity. Suppose, for instance, that the prosecution of the United States Steel corporation by
the Government, which not only seeks
to dissolve this concern, but also to dis-
integrate its component parts, should
result in the shutting down of the big
mills at Monessen, Donora, Clairton, Duquesne, Homestead, Braddock and
everywhere else, including the coal
mines and coke ovens, that are component parts, pending a readjustment
which would take months and possibly two or three years, would public policy be better concerned than to permit these industries to continue with proper restraints? These possible results, hitting us right here at home,
are sufficient to cause consternation in
business circles.

This is destructive policy which is disastrous to public interests. What is wanted is a constructive policy.
Governor Tener struck the keynote
of a constructive policy for this State
when he advocated the State Highway plan. The Government has also inaugurated it in a partial sense in
the adoption of a definite policy of Ohio river improvements in a certain
length of time and the county commissioners have the right idea in the
improvements of the roads in conjunction with the State. The borough council can also adopt and carry out
a constructive policy of a specified
amount of permanent improvements
each year and the construction of a public wharf and landing place on the river that will encourage and help to build up traffic by water. What is wanted is less opposition to those who are trying to do business, employing people and paying wages, and
more encouragement. There is too much of a destructive policy in operation—actively, passively, materially
and morally, all along the line. What is needed for the benefit of humanity is to build up, not to tear
down.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

In a neighborly group the other
evening when the subject of baseball
was under discussion, the question of Sunday games was introduced.

"I'm against Sunday baseball," remarked one, "under the phase of present conditions, but I'll be liberal enough to sanction it if they will make just one stipulation."

"What is that?" he was asked.

"Well if the Legislature will pass
a law with the provision that all
patrons of Sunday games must show
a certificate that they attended church
on Sunday morning, I'll be for it."

At the recent Allegheny county
teachers' institute a veteran primary
teacher related an amusing incident
that came under her experience. One day in her object lesson work she read
to her class the first stanza of the
"Old Oaken Bucket." This she explained very carefully, and then
asked the little ones to copy the stanza
from the blackboard, where she had written it, and illustrate it, the same as the newspapers do.

One little girl handed in her paper
with the verse written on it, and also a drawn circle, half a dozen dots,

and the drawings of three buckets.

"Why, Mary, I don't understand
this," said the teacher. "What is
that circle?"

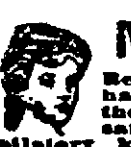

"Oh, that is the well."

"But why have you three buckets?"

"One is the oaken bucket, one is
the iron bound bucket and the other
is the bucket that hangs in the well."

"Then what are these spots?"

"Why they are the loved spots that
my infancy knew."

When Taken Suddenly Ill—Here is a Common-sense Safeguard

Big, strong man is as a helpless infant when he is suddenly ill.

The stoutest chap in town usually loses his self-control, and is utterly unable to regard his condition with the common sense that characterizes his every-day actions.

For example: He comes home tired, eats a heavy dinner and sits down to read and smoke away a quiet evening.

Suddenly he notices a weight on his stomach; then sharp pains around his heart, and a feeling of suffocation. Thoughts of "heart disease" rush over him and in his agony he fears the worst.

His trouble was acute indigestion brought on by overloading his tired stomach.

A couple of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets might have given him relief—might have saved him hours of suffering.

Carry a package of Rexall Dyspepsia

Tablets in your vest pocket or keep them in your room. Take one after each heavy meal, and ward off indigestion.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets relieve stomach troubles by aiding nature to supply those elements, the absence of which in the gastric juices, causes indigestion and dyspepsia. They tend to aid the stomach to digest all kinds of food and to quickly convert it into rich red blood.

We know what Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are and what they will do. We guarantee them to relieve indigestion and dyspepsia. If they fail, we will refund your money.

Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Sold only at our stores or by mail. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, Carroll's Drug Store, 623 Fallowfield avenue, Charleroi.

The ladies of the Washington avenue church will give a turkey dinner and supper in the basement of the church on Thursday, November 16. Elaborate preparations are being made for the event, and a big crowd is expected.

WHAT PUNY CHILDREN NEED

More Food—How to Make Them Eat Heartily

More food, better blood those are the two things that pale, delicate children need most.

"But they won't eat," says the anxious mother. Yes they will if you give them our delicious tonic, Vinol.

It's the greatest thing we ever saw to create an appetite. It makes the blood rich too—builds up weak children (and grown folks as well) and makes them strong and rosy.

Mrs. W. O. Strother of Raleigh, N. C., says: "My little girl, Hazel, has been taking Vinol to build her up after a severe spell of sickness. It has done so much good by restoring her appetite and building up her strength that I think Vinol is the finest tonic ever prepared and I am telling everyone about it."

Children like to take Vinol, the taste is so pleasant. It is not a strong medicine and there is not one harmful thing in it. We will give back your money if Vinol disappoints you. Piper Bros. Druggists, Charleroi, Pa.

Would Be Rid of Undesirables.

Ambassadors from a besieged town were treating with Alexander the Great on the terms of surrender. Alexander ordered that Acuphis, the eldest of the ambassadors, should be the governor of the town, and that he should send immediately as hostages 100 of the best citizens. Acuphis then smilingly observed: "Sire, I could govern better if thou wouldst permit me to send thee 100 of the worst citizens instead of 100 of the best."

Test That Failed.

Jean is a very matter-of-fact sort of three summers. Her mother one day, while holding in her arms the wee baby sister, who was very delicate, remarked: "Dear me, she looks so frail a breath would blow her away." Jean, taking a long breath, pulled it suddenly into the face of the little sister, and, stepping back, waited a moment in silence. Then in a disappointed tone she said: "Well, why don't you go?"

The Mushing Octopus.

The octopus frequently changes its color, like a marineameleon. It would appear, from recent studies of the creature, that the colored pigment whereby this change in color is effected is contained in envelopes in its skin. In the tissues of which are muscular fibers actuated by nerves. Should these fibers become relaxed a dark pigment appears. The phenomenon is said to be analogous to blushing.—Harper's Weekly.

BALLOTS ARE NOW BEING DELIVERED

The delivery of the ballots has started and will probably be completed today. W. G. Nease of Washington who delivered the primary ballots has the contract for the delivery of the election ballots, and they are being delivered by automobile.

The contract price is $1 a precinct, and there are 143 precincts. The package of ballots is sealed before leaving the commissioners' office and is delivered personally to the judges in the different districts. The delivery includes in addition to the ballots, all the election supplies.

Something About Names.

A person will grow to look like and be like his or her name. Algernons and Reginalds of modern times look the part, and owe a deep debt of ingratitude to their parents. A young man named Harold or Montmorency would be justified in hiring an automobile and running over his aged parents as they are attempting to cross the street on the way home from church.—New York Times.

LITTERS FLOOR AND GETS INTO LOT OF TROUBLE

His propensities for littering the floor with hulls of peanuts and orange skins got an Italian whose name is unnecessary to the effect of the story, into a lot of trouble Saturday night. This Italian happened into the Monack fruit store on Fallowfield avenue and started in by throwing peanut hulls on the floor. Requested not to do this he persisted that he could act as he pleased. Accordingly he bought a nickel's worth of oranges and began dropping the peelings. He was told to get out, resisted and was arrested. At a hearing before Burgess George W. Risbeck Sunday evening he was fined $1 and costs. After spending an hour in the lockup he paid the fine and costs and secured his freedom.

some very weak arguments. His real issue was the "Baird boulevard," which it is proposed to build between Donora and Charleroi and which he stated was to cost $334,000. He referred to it as the "hanging boulevard." He held it up as a sample of the extravagance that he said might be expected from the Republican county organization. Mr. Marriner then made the mistake of going after the Republican county platform. This platform he took apart plank by plank and tried to prove where it was lacking, but made rather a sorry attempt of the performance. He stated that, boiled down to facts, the platform was a demand of the county organization for better service than they had been giving the county, and was an absolute acknowledgement of their own shortcomings. Mr. Marriner said he had the "family album" too and to prove that he really was telling the truth held it up for view. Then to demonstrate how utterly unreliable every Republican candidate in it was, he read the back page, which had to do entirely with general topics, and bitterly arraigned the makers of the book. Then Rufus quit and the rally was over.

CHARLEROI DEFEATS MONESSEN ELEVEN

By forfeit the Charleroi Independent High School team won from the Monessen Colonials Saturday afternoon. Jacobs, the big Charleroi fullback secured the ball and made a run to within three yards of the Monessen goal line. A question of time was raised and the Monessen team walked off the field. The forfeit was then declared by a score of 1 to 0. The lineup:

Myth Concerning the Salamander.
Newts and salamanders are pretty much like frogs and toads, only they have a tall and look like a lizard, and then in some breeds the pair of hind legs are small and in others lacking. Salamanders often get into old rotten logs and if put on the fire run out without being hurt in many cases, because they are more or less damp and may not actually pass through much fire. But folk think a salamander is right at home in the fire.

Declare Republican Party is Spending Too Much Mon-
ey for Various Matters

Fusion spellbinders held forth in Charleroi Saturday at a rally destined, according to their assertions, to increase the chances of the county candidates on the Democratic-Keystone ticket four-fold or more. Robert K. Aiken, Esq., of New Castle, who came near showing up E. F. Achen in a fight for Congress about five years ago, was the chief orator. State Senator J. Carter Judson and Rufus S. Marriner, Esq., of Washington were his chief assistants. Dr. J. K. Smith of Charleroi, the chairman of the fusion organization here, was chairman of the meeting.

The meeting was not a "frost." Rufus Marriner said so and a man who has had as much experience in that line as he has had should know. At the beginning there were several hundred gathered around the speaker's stand. This crowd thinned down to possibly a hundred by the time the meeting closed.

State Senator Judson was the first speaker. He went after the present Republican State administration. In no uncertain terms he condemned the Legislature for its wasteful extravagance in the voting of enormous salaries and creating new offices and in various ways draining the treasury for the support of the machine. He asserted that the Legislature was neither honest nor sincere, that it was owned by the machine and worked solely in the interests of the organization. He said he was heartily in favor of Governor Tener's Public Utilities bill, and that he and his Democratic colleagues in the Senate worked hard for the measure but that it was defeated by the Governor's own party and friends. The Washington county ticket he branded as a branch of the organization. He closed with an appeal to the voters to help the movement to tear the State away from the machine.

Attorney Aiken said that five years ago he was a candidate for Congress on a non-partisan platform, and he still stood upon that platform. His mission was to fight the Penrose machine in the State. He arraigned the State Highways project of issuing $50,000,000 in bonds for the construction of roads, and said that to do so the people would have to pay $2,000,000 in interest a year. If people who held property that was subject to State taxation were honest enough to return it, it would not be necessary to issue any bonds at all. He said that on authority of former Auditor General Young the payment of taxes in the State on a billion dollars' worth of stocks and bonds was evaded each year. He roundly scored the State machine and the so-called "Family Ticket" in the county, which he termed a machine affair to help perpetuate political control of the Penrose administration.

Attorney Rufus Marriner gave his entire attention to the county. He proved a good orator but in spots had

Baptist Congregation Asks
Rev. E. J. Stanley to
Become Pastor

At a congregational meeting of the First Baptist church on Sunday morning a unanimous call was extended to Rev. E. J. Stanley, of Newport, Ohio, to become pastor. The call was extended conjunctively with one from the Donora Baptist church, a recently formed organization.

Rev. Stanley, it is understood will accept the two calls. He will be expected to live in Charleroi and divide his time between here and Donora. He will hold morning services here Sunday going to Donora in the afternoon and evening.

Rev. Stanley is a former missionary to Africa. He will probably assume charge of the pastorate here within about a month.

ELKS' HUNT CLOSES; WELTNER'S SIDE WINS

Supper to Follow at Club House Election Night
—Trial to Take Place Before a Jury—Gov-
ernor Tener to be Present

By a slight margin the side captained by C. W. Weltner won in the Elk's annual hunting contest over that captained by James W. Walker, according to a decision of the judges this morning. The hunting contest ended Saturday night when all game was turned in. The annual game supper will take place on Tuesday night, when it is expected that Governor John K. Tener, who is a member of the local lodge will be present. At this time there will be a jury trial of the hunters who participated in the hunt, to ascertain whether or not they indulged in anything during the hunt that was not according to the rules.

The hunt was undoubtedly the most successful ever conducted by the local Elks, and was warmly contested by both sides. Capt. Weltner's side secured a total of 1,951 points to Capt. Walker's 1,780.

Game of all kinds was turned in but the climax was reached when late Saturday night John Jenkins, "Bill" Phillips and Pierce Ferguson walked in with a bear. True the bear was a cub, but it was none the less a bear, captured according to the story of the trio in Venango county. However this game was turned in under protest, it being claimed that the bear was tame at the time it was captured, regardless of what it was when turned in.

Rev. A. E. Burrows and Prof.

Lively interest was shown at the opening Sunday evening of a series of evangelistic services to be conducted at the Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. F. A. Richards, the pastor was in charge of the meeting and preached a sermon on the topic: "What Shall I Do With Jesus?"

On Tuesday night Dr. A. E. Burrows, a noted evangelist of Ohio, and Prof. R. A. Jennings of Pittsburg a song leader who was with Gipsy Smith at his meetings in Pittsburg, will come and take charge of the services.

To the Voters of Washington County:
I desire to characterize as false the statement published in the Union Labor Journal last week and circulated throughout the county that I have promised to appoint as my deputy if elected to the office of county treasurer Harry R. Campbell, whom the article denounces as an enemy of organized labor. I want to say as emphatically as it can be stated that I never entered into any such deal. Mr. Campbell never approached me on the subject, and I never by word or deed intimidated the proposition to him, or to any one else.

The statement that I entered into such a deal is absolutely and unequivocally false. I never promised to appoint Harry R. Campbell or any other person to the position of deputy if elected county treasurer. The statement is circulated as a campaign canard for the express purpose of injuring me on the eve of election, and is false in every particular. I am ready and willing to subscribe to an affidavit to this effect.

Double Apples and Triple
in Fayette County

Luther Burbank has been outdone in his efforts as a naturalist by nature and a Fayette county apple tree. Last week Gilbert Uptegraft of Charleroi visited friends in Fayette county and spent some time on the "Lynn" farm about four miles back of Brownsville. Out walking one day he came upon a tree laden with apples. He examined and found the apples were of a brand new variety although really Ramboes. Every apple that he could pick was a double apple, with a few exceptions, and these exceptions were triple apples. All the apples had one stem and two or three cores.

Council to Take Up Ordinance For Third and
Final Reading

PROMISE OF STATE AID

Among the business to come up at the regularly monthly meeting of the borough council tonight will probably be that of the grade ordinance for Lincoln avenue, which it is proposed to improve by State aid. Council will meet as usual at 8 o'clock.

The ordinance setting the grade along the entire length of Lincoln avenue from the borough line on the north to Second street has already passed first and second readings and tonight will be taken up for final consideration. It was prepared by Borough Engineer Paul G. Elder. With the passage of the ordinance setting the grade, the borough will be in shape for its part of the work. The State had engineers in here last week surveying Lincoln avenue, which is along State Highway route No. 247.

Improvement of the street will be gotten under way just as soon as possible, but this will hardly be until early next season. Weather conditions have much to do with the construction of highways and there is little hope for fair weather from now on until next spring.

FATHER OF MRS. HEUPEL IS DEAD

Big Blanket Ballots Pre- pared for General Election

LAST ROUND OF BATTLE

Candidates Getting in Their
Final Licks Today on the
Opposing Tickets

With election only one day off candidates are putting in their final licks. The ballots have all been prepared for the various districts over the county and specimen ballots are in the hands of workers of both parties.

On the ballots prepared for Charleroi there are six tickets, Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, Socialist, Keystone and Independent. The ballot is of the blanket variety and measures 19 by 24 inches. There are 43 candidates on the county ticket and 45 on the borough ticket with the addition of the six precincts, which will average about a half dozen or more each.

Only the Republican and the Democratic-Keystone tickets are complete. The Prohibition and Socialist tickets are not complete for borough offices and the Prohibitionists have not candidates for all county offices. There is only one man on the Independent ticket, that being John Higgins, a candidate for constable.

Voters can vote a straight ticket by marking a cross in the squares opposite the party name in the first column; while if they wish to vote a split ticket, they will have to make at least 31 different marks. Two constitutional amendments are on the ticket one with reference to the amount of the debt of cities, boroughs, townships and school districts and to the courts of Philadelphia and Allegheny county.

Dr. A. V. Lewis of Donora, who is the Republican nominee for the office of prothonotary should receive the support of the people of Charleroi from the fact that at all times Donora and her people have always given their support to Charleroi candidates for State and county offices. They have also always responded to any invitation to help Charleroi and the whole Monongahela valley in anything for the business advancement of the community. It is therefore proper that we entertain the policy of helping one another. 85-12

CIVIC DUTY.

With many men of many minds and
important borough officials to elect
tomorrow, it is up to every voter in
the borough to exercise his right of
franchise and vote for the candidates
of his choice. When that is done, the
result represents the will of the majority, which in general must be regarded as final. While the majority
does not in every case choose wisely,
and the exigencies of the campaign
often times determines results that
might turn out differently under different conditions, yet this is as near
an expression of the popular will as
can well be devised under a representative form of government.

One of the reasons why a majority
does not always choose wisely is because too many voters put personal
interests and preferences ahead of
civic duty. A man who is a good fellow does not always make a good official, and a man with the proper administrative requirements may not be
personally popular with a sufficient
number of voters to be elected.
Others are supported or opposed of-
times on account of personal differences, or because they belong to this
or that church or fraternity, regard-
less of other qualifications. This is a matter that cannot well be avoided so long as human prejudices and
passions are first considered, and the
final result should be cheerfully ac-
quiesced in by all who take the same
chance on the election. What is desired above all is that Charleroi's
municipal government shall continue

to advance in civic affairs instead of
being checked or falling backward.

With a good array of candidates on
all local tickets and the well known
uplift sentiment of a majority of the
voters of the town, there is little to
fear, no matter what the result may be.
The chief thing for each voter to do
is to turn out and cast his ballot at
the election.

A CONSTRUCTIVE POLICY.

What is needed now in both State
and National administration is a
constructive policy which will be for
the benefit of all the people. This
is clearly being recognized on all
hands, and the political party that makes this a straight issue and can detract popular sentiment from the
destructive policies which all political
parties have been making more or
less of an issue, in response to corporate and industrial abuses, will be an
ultimate winner.

It is perfectly right and proper to
correct corporate abuses, and regulate
their future policies in the interest
of the public welfare, but the down-
right hostility that has been engen-
dered in the effort to work in political capital along with this restriction and regulation is destructive to
national prosperity. Suppose, for instance, that the prosecution of the United States Steel corporation by
the Government, which not only seeks
to dissolve this concern, but also to dis-
integrate its component parts, should
result in the shutting down of the big
mills at Monessen, Donora, Clairton,
Duquesne, Homestead, Braddock and
everywhere else, including the coal
mines and coke ovens, that are common parts, pending a readjustment
which would take months and possibly
two or three years, would public policy be better concerned than to permit these industries to continue with
proper restraints? These possible results, hitting us right here at home,
are sufficient to cause consternation in
business circles.

This is destructive policy which is
disastrous to public interests. What
is wanted is a constructive policy.
Governor Tener struck the keynote
of a constructive policy for this State
when he advocated the State Highway plan. The Government has also
inaugurated it in a partial sense in
the adoption of a definite policy of Ohio river improvements in a certain
length of time and the county commissioners have the right idea in the
improvements of the roads in conjunction with the State. The borough
council can also adopt and carry out
a constructive policy of a specified
amount of permanent improvements
each year and the construction of a
public wharf and landing place on the
river that will encourage and help to build up traffic by water. What is wanted is less opposition to those
who are trying to do business, employing people and paying wages, and
more encouragement. There is too
much of a destructive policy in operation—actively, passively, materially
and morally, all along the line. What
is needed for the benefit of humanity is to build up, not to tear
down.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

In a neighborly group the other
evening when the subject of baseball
was under discussion, the question of Sunday games was introduced.

"I'm against Sunday baseball," remarked one, "under the phase of present conditions, but I'll be liberal
enough to sanction it if they will
make just one stipulation."

"What is that?" he was asked.

"Well if the Legislature will pass
a law with the provision that all
patrons of Sunday games must show
a certificate that they attended church
on Sunday morning, I'll be for it."

At the recent Allegheny county
teachers' institute a veteran primary
teacher related an amusing incident
that came under her experience. One
day in her object lesson work she read
to her class the first stanza of the
"Old Oaken Bucket." This she explained very carefully, and then
asked the little ones to copy the stanza
from the blackboard, where she had
written it, and illustrate it the
same as the newspapers do.

One little girl handed in her paper
with the verse written on it, and al-
so a drawn circle, half a dozen dots,

and the drawings of three buckets.

"Why, Mary, I don't understand
this," said the teacher. "What is
that circle?"

"Oh, that is the well."

"But why have you three buckets?"

"One is the oaken bucket, one is
the iron bound bucket and the other
is the bucket that hangs in the well."

"Then what are these spots?"

"Why they are the loved spots that
my infancy knew."

AFTER 7 YEARS SUFFERING

I Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Waurika, Okla.—"I had female troubles for seven years, was all run down, and so nervous I could not do anything. The doctors treated me for different things but did me no good. I got so bad that I could not sleep day or night. While in this condition I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and began its use and began to feel better. I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham for advice. In a short time I had gained my average weight and am now strong and well."

Another Grateful Woman. Huntington, Mass.—"I was in a nervous, run down condition and for three years could find no help. I owe my present good health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier. I believe saved my life. My doctor knows what I am and does not say one word against it."

—Mrs. MARI JANETTE LAYLE, Box 124, Huntington, Mass.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without getting Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely will cure many cases of female troubles, inflammation, ulceration of the uterus, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, and nervous prostration.

HARD BATTLE FOR THE DOG

Sport Killed the Big Bob Cat, but He Suffered Severely in the Combat.

After a battle in which he came near meeting death himself, Sport, a medium sized coach dog, the property of W. M. Butterbaugh, a rancher living in Lemps Gulch, Idaho, killed a bob cat that measured six feet from nose to tip of tail.

The dog was terribly scratched and bitten and has not yet entirely recovered. He was mauled by the long, sharp claws of the big cat and in some places the scratches are deep, digging clear to the bone. The cat would weigh half again as much as the dog, and towered above him in height.

Mr. Butterbaugh did not see the fight, but arrived on the scene shortly after the dog had killed the cat and found his faithful friend lying on the ground, unable to move, and scarcely living. It looked at the time like a bad case, but he succeeded in nursing the animal back to life.

"For some days we had been missing chickens," Mr. Butterbaugh said, "and I was unable to figure out what was killing them. I would get up in the morning and find one or two lying dead. They were all warm, and I could not tell what sort of an animal was doing the mischief."

"But Sport figured it out, and one morning I heard him take out after something. I got up as soon as I could and followed up the gulch, expecting that they would take that trail. When I got there I found the dog lying on the ground and the big cat dead."

"The dog had chased him up there, but the cat had turned on him and shown fight. They must have fought there 15 minutes before the battle was settled. And from the looks of both the cat and the dog it must have been a terrible battle."

FOR BIG VOTE IN QUAKER CITY

Effect of National Issues in Mayoralty Campaign.

BUSINESS MEN ARE ACTIVE

Philadelphia, Oct. 31.—A Republican majority so large that it will impress the country with Philadelphia's uncompromising Republicanism is the confident prediction of close observers of the municipal campaign in this city. Philadelphia is looking ahead, to the battle to be fought in the national campaign of 1912. The labor and capital of this great commercial and manufacturing city know what Republican defeat in that campaign will mean to Philadelphia and Pennsylvania. If George H. Earle is elected mayor by an unprecedented majority next Tuesday that outcome of the campaign will be due not so much to Mr. Earle's splendid qualifications for the office of mayor and his personal popularity as to the fact that the Quaker City voter is alive to the importance of the issues which confront the Republican party in the nation.

The Quaker City is experiencing one of the most unusual campaigns in its history. Instead of the tumult and shouting, which heretofore have been so interesting a feature of a mayoralty contest in Philadelphia, the voter is being quietly but effectively impressed with his duty this fall. To a large extent it is a business man's campaign. Never before have representatives of the business interests been so active in a municipal contest here. The activity of the business man is indicated by the effective work for the Republican ticket by the Business Men's League. This organization has headquarters in the Walton Hotel. Its president is Charlemagne Tower, who since his retirement from the position of ambassador to Germany has been prominent in the business life of this city. Its membership is composed of conservative and successful business men. The attitude of the league in the present campaign was outlined a few days ago by Frederick T. Chandler, chairman of the executive committee.

Dangers of Democratic Program. "The contest in Philadelphia is but the beginning of the contest between the Republican and Democratic parties in the nation," said Mr. Chandler. "The Democrats now have control of the house at Washington, and they are striving to elect a Democrat president. This program assails the interests of Philadelphia and Pennsylvania. Philadelphia, as was shown at the primaries, is overwhelmingly Republican, and all efforts to show that Republican principles are not involved in this present contest in this city have been futile. All that is necessary now is to work to make the Republican majority greater than ever before in the history of the city, so that the country will know where Philadelphia stands with reference to the national contest already begun between the Democratic and Republican parties."

Senator Penrose also has emphasized the importance of Republican victory in the elections this fall. In a brief speech at a luncheon in honor of Mr. Earle Senator Penrose said:

"The fight that is being fought at the present time is but the prelude of the fight that will be fought in 1912 by the Republican and Democratic parties within the nation. The prosperity of Philadelphia has been due chiefly to the Republican principle of a protective tariff. It is in this great city that some of the leading manufacturing establishments of the country were founded and are flourishing to day. A protective tariff aided them in growing and permitting their prosperity to continue. As a result, we have become the very center of the textile industries of the United States."

Object Lesson Abroad.

"In England many plans have been tried to improve the condition of the working man, but in that country to day there is much distress because of the fact that there can be no prosperity among working men without attendant prosperity in business generally. The main thing, then, for the city or the nation to do is to build up business generally in such a way that all will enjoy its benefits alike."

"With the national contest approaching, the Republican party must preserve a united front, and the election of Mr. Earle will not only be a vindication of Republican principles, thus giving support to the principle of a protective tariff, but will, at the same time, insure so business-like an administration for the city that its internal affairs will be readjusted on a basis that will make for sound and continued prosperity."

Many inquiries from throughout the state relative to the constitutional amendments to be voted on this fall have been received at the headquarters of the Republican State Committee. Secretary Baker today explained the purpose of these amendments.

"There will appear on the ballot this year two proposed constitutional amendments," said Mr. Baker. "One provides for the consolidation of the courts of Allegheny county; the other that the debt of the city and county of Philadelphia may be increased when the improvements provided thereby shall yield a current net revenue in excess of the interest on said

RAILROAD READY FOR EXPOSITION

Pennsylvania System Taking Lively Interest in Fruit and Grain Raising

A booklet describing the exhibit to be presented by the Pennsylvania Railroad at the American Land & Irrigation Exposition at Madison Square Garden, New York City has just been issued by the Company. The Exposition opened this week and will continue until November 12th.

The work which the Pennsylvania has done to increase the crops along its lines will be illustrated graphically. There will also be seen models showing the development in transportation methods from the Conestoga wagon to the most modern cars. Topographical models are prepared to represent the Allegheny Mountains, Old Portage Railroad, the celebrated Horse Shoe Curve, the Cumberland Valley, and the Pennsylvania Railroad's entrance into New York City and extension to Long Island. Many other models and tables of interesting statistics relative to farming will be on exhibition.

Among other things in the pamphlet which the Pennsylvania Railroad has just issued is the statement that "the Pennsylvania's many efforts to promote scientific agriculture afford the enrichment of land lying along its lines. These activities have been both direct and indirect. Directly the company has aided the farmer by educating him in the best methods of agriculture. Indirectly the farmer is benefited by every improvement in railroad facilities which makes travel easier, and which brings new districts in close touch with each other."

An abundance of valuable literature on agricultural topics has been prepared by the company which will be supplied upon application to the Freight Department of the Railroad. Pamphlets issued cover, among a number of various subjects:

- Wheat culture, corn culture, oat culture, potato culture, alfalfa, seed grain suggestions, use of lime on land, soil fertility, orcharding.
- Primer No. 1—Planting
- Primer No. 2—Pruning
- Primer No. 3—Spraying
- Primer No. 4—Cultivation
- Good Roads at Low Cost
- Increase the Crop per acre: use of Dynamite on the Farm; Farming Possibilities of the Delaware-Maryland-Virginia Peninsula

MEN ARE AS HELPLESS AS CHILDREN

When Taken Suddenly Ill—Here is a Common-sense Safeguard

Big, strong man is as a helpless child when he is suddenly ill.

The strong man is usually unable to regard his condition with the common sense that characterizes his every-day actions.

For example: He comes home, tired, eats a heavy dinner and sits down to read and smoke away a quiet evening.

Suddenly he notices a weight on his stomach; then sharp pains around his heart, and a feeling of suffocation. Thoughts of "heart disease" rush over him and in his agony he fears the worst.

His trouble was acute indigestion brought on by overloading his tired stomach.

A couple of Revall Dyspepsia Tablets might have given him relief—might have saved him hours of suffering.

Carry a package of Revall Dyspepsia

Tablets in your vest pocket or keep them in your room. Take one after each heavy meal, and ward off indigestion.

Revall Dyspepsia Tablets relieve stomach troubles by aiding nature to supply those elements, the absence of which in the gastric juices, causes indigestion and dyspepsia. They tend to aid the stomach to digest all kinds of food and to quickly convert it into rich red blood.

We know what Revall Dyspepsia Tablets are and what they will do. We guarantee them to relieve indigestion and dyspepsia. If they fail, we will refund your money.

Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Sold only at our stores or by mail. Remember, you can obtain Revall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, Carroll's Drug Store, 623 Fallowfield avenue, Charleroi.

Will Give Turkey Dinner

The ladies of the Washington avenue church will give a turkey dinner and supper in the basement of the church on Thursday, November 16. Elaborate preparations are being made for the event, and a big crowd is expected.

WHAT PUNY CHILDREN NEED

More Food—How to Make Them Eat Heartily

More food, better blood those are the two things that pale, delicate children need most.

"But they won't eat," says the anxious mother. Yes they will if you give them our delicious tonic, Vinol.

It's the greatest thing we ever saw to create an appetite. It makes the blood rich too—builds up weak children (and grown folks as well) and makes them strong and rosy.

Mrs. W. O. Strother of Raleigh, N. C., says: "My little girl, Hazel, has been taking Vinol to build her up after a severe spell of sickness. It has done so much good by restoring her appetite and building up her strength that I think Vinol is the finest tonic ever prepared and I am telling everyone about it."

Children like to take Vinol, the taste is so pleasant. It is not a strong medicine and there is not one harmful thing in it. We will give back your money if Vinol disappoints you. Piper Bros. Druggists, Charleroi, Pa.

Would Be Rid of Undesirables.

Ambassadors from a besieged town were treating with Alexander the Great on the terms of surrender. Alexander ordered that Acuphis, the eldest of the ambassadors, should be the governor of the town, and that he should send immediately as hostages 100 of the best citizens. Acuphis then smilingly observed: "Sire, I could govern better if thou wouldst permit me to send thee 100 of the worst citizens instead of 100 of the best."

Test That Failed.

Jean is a very matter-of-fact, tot of three summers. Her mother one day, while holding her arms, a wee baby sister, who was very delicate, remarked: "Dear me, she looks so frail a breath would blow her away." Jean taking a long breath, pulled it suddenly into the face of the little sister, and, stepping back, waited a moment in silence. Then in a disappointed tone she said: "Well, why don't you go?"

The Blushing Octopus.

The octopus frequently changes its color, like a marineameleon. It would appear, from recent studies of the creature, that the colored pigment whereby this change in color is effected is contained in envelopes in its skin, in the tissues of which are muscular fibers actuated by nerves. Should these fibers become relaxed a dark pigment appears. The phenomenon is said to be analogous to blushing—Harper's Weekly.

Wouldn't Be Quite Proper.

Modern Young Person (showing friend round Paris)—This place is rather jolly at night; but, of course, it's not the sort of place to take your mother to!

RESIGNATION IS TENDERED SUNDAY

The delivery of the ballots has started and will probably be completed today. W. C. Nease of Washington who delivered the primary ballots has the contract for the delivery of the election ballots, and they are being delivered by automobile.

The contract price is $1 a precinct, and there are 143 precincts. The package of ballots is sealed before leaving the commissioners' office and is delivered personally to the judges in the different districts. The delivery includes in addition to the ballots, all the election supplies.

Something About Names.

A person will grow to look like and be like his or her name. Algeron and Reginald of modern times look the part, and owe a deep debt of gratitude to their parents. A young man named Harold or Montmorency would be justified in hiring an automobile and running over his aged parents as they are attempting to cross the street on the way home from church.—New York Times.

Beginning of Christian Era.

In the year 391 of our era Theodosius the Great issued an edict abolishing paganism and idolatry throughout the Roman empire.

LITTERS FLOOR AND GETS INTO LOT OF TROUBLE

His propensities for littering the floor with hulls of peanuts and orange skins got an Italian whose name is unnecessary to the effect of the story, into a lot of trouble Saturday night. This Italian happened into the Monack fruit store on Fallowfield avenue and started in by throwing peanut hulls on the floor. Requested not to do this he persisted that he could act as he pleased. Accordingly he bought a nickel's worth of oranges and began dropping the peelings. He was told to get out, resisted and was arrested. At a hearing before Burgess George W. Risbeck Sunday evening he was fined $1 and costs after spending an hour in the lockup he paid the fine and costs and secured his freedom.

some very weak arguments. His real issue was the "Baird boulevard," which it is proposed to build between Donora and Charleroi and which he stated was to cost $334,000. He referred to it as the "hanging boulevard." He held it up as a sample of the extravagance that he said might be expected from the Republican county organization. Mr. Marriner then made the mistake of going after the Republican county platform. This platform he took apart plank by plank and tried to prove where it was lacking, but made rather a sorry attempt of the performance. He stated that, boiled down to facts, the platform was a demand of the county organization for better service than they had been giving the county, and was an absolute acknowledgement of their own shortcomings. Mr. Marriner said he had the "family album" too and to prove that he really was telling the truth held it up for view. Then to demonstrate how utterly unreliable every Republican candidate in it was, he read the back page, which had to do entirely with general topics, and bitterly arraigned the makers of the book. Then Rufus quit and the rally was over.

CHARLEROI DEFEATS MONESSEN ELEVEN

By forfeit the Charleroi Independent High School team won from the Monessen Colonials Saturday afternoon. Jacobs, the big Charleroi full-back secured the ball and made a run to within three yards of the Monessen goal line. A question of time was raised and the Monessen team walked off the field. The forfeit was then declared by a score of 1 to 0. The lineup:

Myth Concerning the Salamander.

Newts and salamanders are pretty much like frogs and toads, only they have a tail and look like a lizard, and then in some breeds the pair of hind legs are small and in others lacking. Salamanders often get into old rotten logs and if put on the fire run out without being hurt in many cases, because they are more or less damp and may not actually pass through much fire. But folk think a salamander is right at home in the fire.

The Frankness of Women.

Though the male was never taken at his own valuation by women, for the first time in modern history women are beginning to say so.—Morley Roberts in "Thorpe's Way."

Advantage of Cheerfulness.

There are those who sneer at the cheerful philosopher and call him a cheerful idiot, but the cheerful idiot seldom goes adrift in his mind. Those who constantly travel the dark side of melancholy street are the ones who forget their real names and what they are here for.

Masquerade Party.

A masquerade party was held on Friday evening at the home of Miss Bessie Reilly of Vagita. A large number was present among them several guests from Charleroi. The evening was spent in games and music and a delightful lunch was served.

I'll Look Around a Little

THAT'S what four lookers said Saturday afternoon. We were satisfied. Within an hour three of them were back and bought the shoes they had tried on, and the universal opinion was that

"Our Shoes Fit Better, Have More Style Than any in Town and Prices No Higher."

It pleases us to have people make comparison. It's the only way to tell who has the best.
